

Vacaville American Little League

Player Code of Conduct

All players must read, understand, and sign this form prior to participating in Vacaville American Little League. Please also take the time to review our general Code of Conduct, available at: vacavilleamericanlittleleague.com.

The Vacaville American Little League Board of Directors has adopted the following Player Code of Conduct to promote sportsmanship, respect, and responsibility both on and off the field.

As a Vacaville American Little League player, I pledge to:

- Show respect for coaches, teammates, opponents, officials, and spectators at all times.
- Demonstrate good sportsmanship by playing fair, following the rules, and encouraging others.
- Give my best effort in practices and games, remembering that effort and teamwork are more important than winning.
- Control my temper and never use unsportsmanlike conduct, such as arguing, taunting, or inappropriate language.
- Respect the authority of umpires and league officials.
- Be a positive role model for others by showing integrity and fairness.
- Take care of league equipment and facilities, leaving them in good condition for others.
- Refrain from using tobacco, alcohol, or drugs.

I understand that if I fail to follow this Code of Conduct, I may be subject to disciplinary action by the Vacaville American Little League Board of Directors, which could include:

- Verbal Warning
- Written Warning
- Suspension from games
- Season suspension
- Removal from all league activities

The Vacaville American Little League Board of Directors retains the sole authority to determine appropriate disciplinary action for any conduct infraction.
